Tracking the Big Ideas

Inside Front Cover: Characters

Develop a list of characters that includes the following for each main character:

Descriptors (age, gender, build, hair, eyes, etc.)
Temperament (easy-going, shy, nervous, strong-willed, determined)
Personality (introverted/extroverted, relies on feelings/reasoning, judgmental/open)
Special Talents and Abilities
Internal Problems

Capture page references for key scenes or quotes

Capture moments of character development

Inside Back Cover: Plot, Themes, etc.

List and add page references and/or notes for the following as you read:

Setting: Where (Real/Imaginary), When (Past, Present, Future)
Conflict(s): Problems faced (external/internal)?, Conflict between hero/villain
Rising Action: Actions to reach goals/overcome problems
Climax: Action(s) that bring about a turning point or change
Falling Action: How conflict starts to unravel/moments of final suspense
Resolution: How conflict is resolved and characters' lives are changed.

Also capture themes, allusions, images, motifs, key scenes, plot line, epiphanies,

Bottom and Side Page Margins: Summary/Interpretative Notes, questions, and/or remarks that refer to meaning of the page. Markings or notes to tie in with information on the inside back cover.

Top Margins: Plot notes -- a quick few words or phrases that summarize what happens here (useful for quick location of passages in discussion and for writing assignments).
